Dear Ms. Simpson:

Regarding incorrect figures:

As soon as we filed originally, we realized our error and filed an amendment electronically immediately. That amendment must have not gone through properly because when I reviewed our information on your web site, it was missing and another was incomplete. I apologize for the inconvenience. We have filed amended reports beginning January 1, 2000, which correct any error you have identified as well as updated employer and occupation information, which we were able to find since the original filing. Please let me know if any further action is required on our part.

Regarding 48 reports:

We have reviewed and revised our procedures and believe all "last minute" $1,000 contributions made prior to the general election were reported as 48 hour reports accurately and on time. This revision includes the installation of automated, computer generated 48 reports. Please let me know if there is any further action required on our part.

Regarding signatures:

It is our understanding that electronically filed reports are not required to file additional reports with handwritten signatures of the treasurer attached. This was confirmed by the Federal Elections Commission via a phone call to the information division. Please advise if we need to take any further action to resolve this matter.

Sincerely,
